

Leader Recommendation for College-Age or Adult Applicants

Never the Same Missions Trip

(To be filled out by your current pastor or Bible Study leader, currently involved in your life).

The purpose of this recommendation is to find out as much as possible about the applicant's character, spiritual maturity, leadership skills and emotional stability. This particular mission's trip has a variety of ministry opportunities for team involvement, discipleship, physical demands and spiritual intensity. We are looking for college-age young adults with strong leadership skills to work with, mentor and spiritually encourage younger teens. We appreciate and depend on your honest opinion. Your evaluation is appreciated and held in strict confidence.

This form must be completed and turned into Big World Ventures before you can be officially accepted by Never the Same Missions to participate in a summer mission venture.
