The purpose of this recommendation is to find out as much as possible about the applicant's character, spiritual standing and emotional stability. This particular mission's trip has a variety of ministry opportunities, team involvement, discipleship, physical demands and spiritual intensity and is a ministry/service trip for teens that are serious about their faith and have a desire to share the gospel to needy people. It is not meant to be an opportunity for a student who is emotionally or spiritually troubled or has walked away from God to straighten their life out. Your honest evaluation is appreciated and held in strict confidence.
